One image, six registered internal targets

Fixed first evaluation image and preregistered target IDs; no display-based target selection.