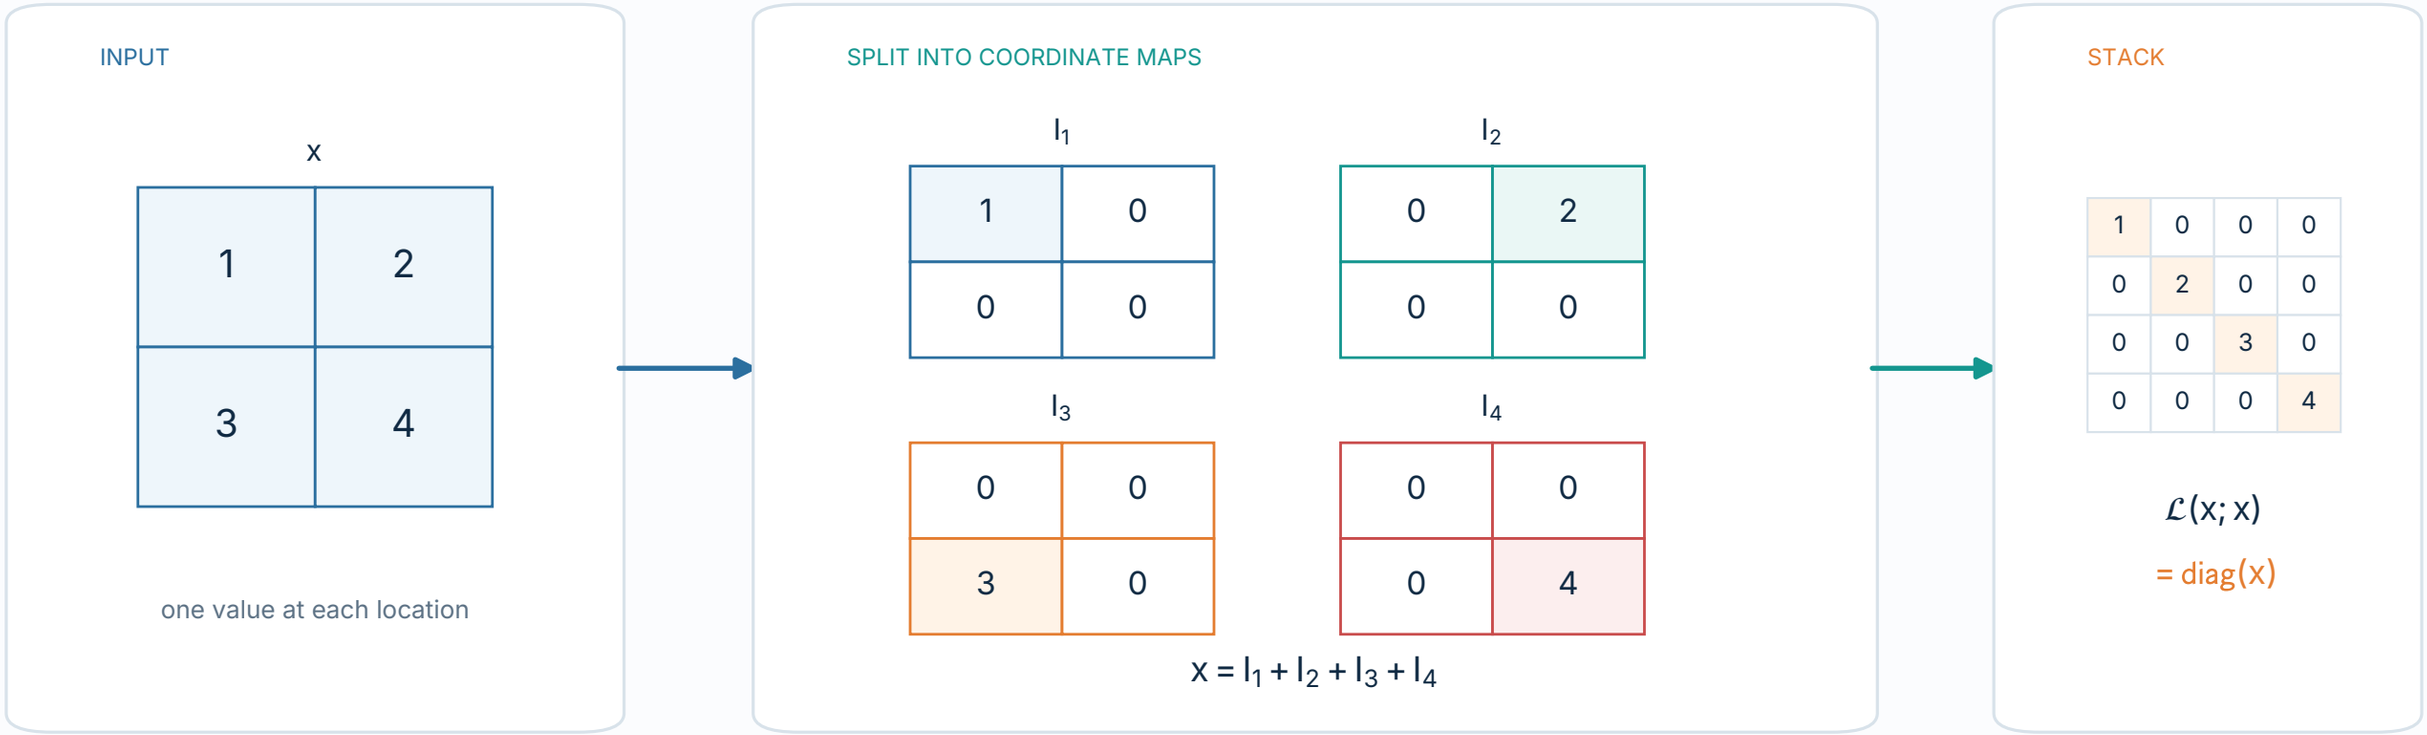
Initialization keeps both input value and location


The initialization is diagonal: one map per coordinate, no spatial mixing.